Thank you for considering adoption. Before continuing, consider the cost of owning a rabbit. Rabbits can live for 10+ years when cared for properly. You will be responsible for the costs associated with caring for the rabbit including medical care and treatment. This application is meant to determine which rabbit if any will be a great match for you and your family. Just like every rabbit, every living situation is different, and some rabbits will thrive in some situations better than others. If you do not have a match or if we feel the rabbit you are interested in will not be an ideal match for your situation, your application can be held for future matches if you so choose.
